

Habitat for Humanity®

World
Habitat Day

OCTOBER 6, 2008

UN World Habitat Day Housing Forum “Affordable and Healthy Housing for All”

Special Guest: Jonathan Reckford, Global CEO, Habitat for Humanity International

You are invited to join us for this forum focusing on issues of substandard housing in New Zealand, and the opportunities we have to build better communities.

Format

- Opening address by Jonathan Reckford
- 4 speakers will focus on particular subjects relevant to affordable and healthy housing here in New Zealand:
- Major Campbell Roberts, Director Salvation Army Social Policy and Parliamentary unit – Poverty, Housing and social policy
- Dr Chris Bullen, School of Population Health, University of Auckland – Housing and health
- Nick Collins, General Manager Beacon Pathway – Sustainability and housing
- Dr Simon Denny, Department of Paediatrics, University of Auckland – Housing and Education
- This will be followed by a lively and interesting panel discussion involving Q&A's with the audience. The panel will comprise of the 4 main speakers and representatives from the major political parties. They include:
 - Phil Heatley, Housing spokesperson, National
 - Phil Twyford, Labour (ex CEO Oxfam NZ, Oxfam Intl.)
 - Sue Bradford, Housing spokesperson, Green Party
 - Maori Party representative

Event Details

- Date: Monday, October 6
- Time: 1pm – 2.30pm
- Venue: Limelight Theatre, Aotea Centre, Auckland City
- Parking: Aotea Centre, The Edge
- RSVP: please respond by email to tlim@habitat.org.nz to assist our numbers management

Habitat
for Humanity®
New Zealand

